

TERMS & CONDITIONS

LAST UPDATED: 27th November, 2019

PRINT RELEASE

This is a binding agreement between On Point Photographic Services and purchaser of high resolution digital images ("client"). Client has purchased photographs as high-resolution digital files ("images") taken during photography session On Point Photographic Services. On Point Photographic Services does not restrict number of prints client may take. On Point Photographic Services also grants permission to email, digitally publish and digitally distribute images for private personal use.

Client may not use images for any commercial or for-profit purpose, including but not limited to: editorial, stock photography, sales of prints, resale of images in any way, or promotional media.

On Point Photographic Services reserves the right to use images for self-promotional purposes, including but not limited to: advertisements, editorial, print or digital publishing, contests, and public display. On Point Photographic Services agrees to use images for self-promotional purposes only. On Point Photographic Services Will not resell images or prints of images without prior written permission from client.

On Point Photographic Services maintains ownership and copyright of images. Client is given permission to post low resolution images on social media platforms. Client will give full credit On Point Photographic Services for image publicity via linked tag, caption, watermark or comment for any and all images shared online through social media.

Client hereby releases On Point Photographic Services from any and all liability for any damage or injury resulting from the use of the images.

DATE _____

NAME _____

SIGNATURE _____ SIGNATURE _____